- remote location; or
- financial distress.

Family Violence

In Australian law, ‘Family Violence’ is defined as:

“violent, threatening or other behaviour by a person that coerces or controls a member of the person’s family or causes the family member to be fearful.”

Family Law Act 1975 (Cth), section 4AB.

Family Violence means much more than physical violence. It includes:

- emotional abuse, psychological abuse, sexual abuse, financial or economic abuse; and
- damage to property.

The way employees deal with Customers who may be affected by Family Violence should facilitate, rather than act as a barrier to identifying Family Violence and improve the experience of those affected by Family Violence. The aim of the Policy is to ensure that whenever Family Violence is identified or suspected, the safety of the Customer affected by Family Violence and their family is protected.

Pro-Insure Pty Ltd recognises that Family Violence is unacceptable in any relationship and Customers experiencing Family Violence will be treated with dignity and respect.

The support of Customers experiencing Family Violence and their family is the highest priority. Customers who indicate or disclose Family Violence are able to access support from Pro-Insure Pty Ltd that is appropriate to their circumstances.
